Personnel

Joan Carter

Clarinet, Bass Clarinet

Ms. Carter holds degrees in Business Administration and Enology, a field fostered by her younger years growing up among the vineyards of Napa County. To complement her interest in wine, Joan has invested much volunteer time in the complimentary field of cheese-making. Joan has been playing clarinet since Junior High School, with a break only during her early professional career as a Tarot Card Reader. She also plays bass clarinet with the Contra Costa Wind Symphony and East Bay Symphonic Band.

George March

Clarinet

Mr. March is currently not employed full-time. His part-time occupations include Murder Mystery writing and serving as a Shuttle Pilot. He comes from a musical family with a total of more than twenty instruments played by various family members. His background interests encompass a variety of subjects, including Wickiup Construction, Cartography and Archery. George has been playing clarinet since the age of 9. He also plays tenor sax with the Ohlone College Community Band, and clarinet with the Danville Community Band.

John Toyama

Clarinet

Mr. Toyama is currently employed in the competitive field of Home Design Management, with specialties in Art Studies and Interior Decorating. His step into this profession was directed by his highly refined skills as an Etch-a-Sketch master as a youth, and later degrees in Graphic Arts and Antiquities Studies. His other interests include jigsaw puzzle design, spelunking and underwater yoga. Beginning playing clarinet in elementary school, John also plays clarinet with the Danville Community Band.

Karyn Weber

Alto Clarinet, Bass Clarinet

Ms. Weber is retired as an Administrative Assistant and now focuses her time between her two favorite subjects – playing bass clarinet and bonsai gardening. She began playing clarinet in Junior High School and switched to bass clarinet in High School, with a side of alto clarinet. Her bonsai interest grew as a result of a long recuperation from an injury during a yo-yo competition as a youth. Karyn plays alto clarinet with the Walnut Creek Concert Band and Contra Costa Wind Symphony, and bass clarinet with the Danville Community Band.
